

ServeView

CPU access system

One keyboard/monitor/mouse connects up to 256 PC, Apple, Sun, and RS/6000 computers

FEATURES

- Switches several computers to a single monitor, keyboard, and mouse
- Supports any mix of PC, Apple, Sun, & R/S 6000 computers
- Saves physical space, equipment and power costs, reduces clutter
- Command to switch port originates from your keyboard, front panel, or RS232 port
- Simple to use keystrokes switch ports for fast and easy control
- Available in three series:
 - SV series
Compact 2 or 4 port unit
 - SVX series
4, 8, 12, or 16 port units
 - SVE series
4, 8, 12, or 16 port units
Front panel has keypad for easy selection of ports
Display shows port name and other information
Flash memory for future upgrade of features
- Video frequency up to 1280 by 1024 non-interlaced
- Automatic keyboard and mouse booting of any computer
- Translates KB and mouse from one type of computer to another type of computer
- Built in daisy-chaining to support up to 256 computers
- SVX/SVE 4, 8, & 12 port units field expandable to 16 ports
- Front panel LEDs show power, selected port, and each CPU's power-on status
- Control switching and scanning from the front panel
- Keyboard Num Lock, Caps Lock, and Scroll Lock states automatically saved and restored when switching among CPUs
- Scan mode automatically switches through CPUs; Time interval is programmable from 1-15 seconds
- Scan mode can be enabled from front panel or keyboard
- Screen saver function will blank screen after specified time; Time interval is programmable from 1-999 seconds
- RS232 input port can be used to switch the ports
- Non-volatile memory stores configuration settings
- Power on diagnostics and loop-back tests
- ServeView ports use DB25 connectors
- Rack mount options available
- Comes with a full one-year warranty and unlimited technical support
- Made in USA